"The Beyerlein Player poll is a poll of the Postal Diplomacy community to determine the best currently-active players in postal Diplomacy. Any player, GM or publisher may cast his/her vote. On a separate piece of paper list the 14 players you believe to be the top postal players. List them in order and be sure to list EXACTLY 14, no more or no less! All such ballots MUST be signed and sent to Doug Beyerlein, 3934 S.W. Southern, Seattle, Washington 98116 before 8 July, 1972.... Vote today! (comments appreciated--

Musings

A sporadic column of insights and comments.

Paid reservations for Diplo-Con V are starting to pour in. We anticipated this long ago. With this in mind we have arranged a very special treat that will be announced at the Sunday night banquet. Allan Calhamer, who will be the guest speaker and John Root are assisting in the arrangements.

Discussing the banquet, a couple of warnings are in order. Applications for that are coming in very fast. There is a multitude of reasons for this. Chief among them is cost. We are taking a beating on every pre-registrant at the banquet.

The banquet costs us $7.00 per person. The cost for pre-registrants is $4.00. Understandably after the pre-registration deadline we will promptly put a stop to this nonsense. All banquet registrations p.m.'d after July 1 or received after July 3, 1972 will pay full freight (ah, there Dr. Boardman--you're not the only one with rigid deadlines!).

Why come to the banquet? Good reasons! Chief among them is that the glory and the prizes will be awarded there by Mr. Calhamer. And there is that special surprise. For the rich in spirit and poor and depleted in pocketbook, don't forget to include your dinner reservation with your entry fee.

In the last issue of Neo-LD I raised the question, why one cannot stab a friend who is also an ally and keep him as a friend? I received a few replies, e.g. Hal Norman, Lee Childs and Drew McGee. Best among them was mentioned by Lee Childs (14136 Hartsook Street, Sherman Oaks Blvd., California 91403) ((who alas is on the verge of shutting down his superb Daily Planet)). He comments:

There is no simple answer for determining how one can both play Diplomacy and be friends with someone. I find that as I like someone more, I play with them less. ((Could that be why you're shutting down the mag?)) This is true both of my relationship with Bruce Webb and with Arnold Vagts. While I met them both thru Diplomacy, I haven't played them since ... (last summer).

Others wrote to suggest that a person who was becoming a friend would not be treated as a foe.

Co-incidentally, this same question was raised by John Boyer in his SUPERB 'zine IMPASSABLE. (117 Garland Drive, Carlisle, PA 17013.) ((Really, he has a tremendous little publication. But, already I am in error. It is one of the very best. Nothing little about it except the price. Also John is the editor of the new Dip-Org mag. He was elected to the post on merit!)) John broached the question of stabbing a friend-ally at the same time I did. The response he got was quite light also. We both raised the same question. And got zip for an answer. With this in mind he began to explore the problem, noting that success in this game requires a stab. The next issue of musings will reprint part of his article.

Dr. John Boardman indicated he would be at Diplo-Con V if his Summer schedule permits. We hope to see you here Dr. Boardman! What a name!!!

While scanning through some old files before I moved I found an IQ test from the Chicago Daily News, Saturday March 30, 1963 adapted from a book by William Bernard and Jules Leopold, Chilton Co., Philadelphia. The book is titled A HANDBOOK OF SELF-ANALYSIS and is still in print. Below is reproduced that exam.

Directions: Work as fast as you can without sacrificing accuracy. If you wish, you may use extra paper for calculations. Allow time to do as much of the exam as you can, don't spend too much time on any one question. Give yourself exactly 45 minutes, without break. It is wise to use a timer or have a friend time the exam for you. place answer in parens behind the question.

If the time limit has not up return to your work and get those you haven't answered or proofread those you have answered the answers and the means of tabulation of the results appear at the end of the zine. I caution you not to be too elated or distraught by the results. A battery of IQ tests, as found in the text outlined, will give you a much better summation of where your head is at than this one test(which varies, of course). And if your daddy's rich don't worry at all!!

The Diplomacy Scene

News & comment within and without/L Lakofka

NEW ORGANIZATION takes its first unsure steps!

1. The election, bungled as it was, is now over and final! the results of the final election are: Interin officers; President, Larry Peery, VP; Walter Buchanan, Ombudsman; Edi Birsan, Editor; John Boyer, Atlantic Regional sec.; Steve Nozik, Pacific regional sec.; John Biehl, Midwest regional secretary; Lenard Lakofka, At large secretaries; Rod Walker and Elliot Lipson. The name of the "new org" is "International Diplomacy Association" and its newsletter shall be "the Diplomacy Review".
2. Some early business in the IDA:
 - A) John Boyer has, in a letter to the council members, suggested weighted votes for some members of the council. Thus as MRS (Midwest Regional Secretary) I'd cast about 15 votes. The At Large Secretaries (ALS) would cast 68 votes etc. However, two problems quickly arise. Would ALL officers maintain a council vote? How could the council be polled? If we have an executive and a legislative branch then the "executive would get to execute and legislate, in short obtaining a double vote. If we agree that there are two branches then only the Ombudsman and the secretaries should vote on legislation. Second, how can the council decide this question? If each council member gets one vote in the decision, and we vote to use weighted votes, we cancel the precedent we just used to obtain the weighted vote system. I am strongly opposed to this "after the fact" call for a rape of the regional secretary's vote. Our combined vote would equal that of one "At large" secretary. If the constitution wished to have such a system it would have to have created it.
 - B) In a recent publication of Larry Peery he comments on receiving flak from some of the members about the election and other topics. This criticism may be early. We must give him a chance, after all. If he thinks that he will dictate or decree he is wrong, and we are all aware of it. One of the topics he did not answer, in this across the board hand washing, was the subject of the creation of an election committee. Both Walter Buchanan and I are in favor of such a body and we will now try to rally support among the other council members!
3. INTERNATIONAL DIPLOMACY ASSOCIATION games to open in LIAISONS DANGEREUSES!! LD will open three games, LD 17, LD 18, and LD 19 exclusively to the members of the IDA. Their format shall be as follows: LD 17-- open to all members of the IDA for $2.50!! LD 18 open to members in the MID WEST region and on the COUNCIL only--$1.00!!!! LD 19 Futuristic Diplomacy--open to all IDA members, $2.50. This is NOT a variant of Diplomacy! Each move will carry the standard time scale for reference (spring, summer, fall, autumn and Winter) but it will also carry a dateline in the future, in an attempt, to stimulate the PRESS. Therefore the first full set of moves will occur in the MONTH of January in 2001!
4. LIAISONS DANGEREUSES proudly announces the formation of the PUBLISHER's GAME (LD 16). Game fee now $5.00 Paid are; Buddy Tretick, Chris Schleicher, John Boyer, Steve Cooper, Charles Welsh, and Tom Leahey. ONLY one more PUBLISHER is needed to open this exciting game!
5. Rod Walker hits the press again. Rod appears in PANZERFAUST as guest author in a column taken from HOOSIER ARCHIVES. He also edits a column in the new wargame publication; CONFLICT!

June 3, 1972

-----at last, the games!-----
 LD 8, LD 9, LD 12, NEO 3, NEO 6 & NEO 5 have gone out by carbon letter and are due on either June 7 or June 14. They shall be reported in LD 33, as this issue is too full and I don't want to go to 16¢ postage.
